To

The Dewan of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 14th February 1908.

SIR,

A question having been raised as to the interpretation of the words 'temporarily residing' which occur in rule I -5 of the rules issued under the Indian Arms Act, 1878, in order to determine in what cases American and Europeans, not being British born subjects of His Majesty, should be held to be exempted persons, the Government of India have explained that all Americans and Europeans who are not natural-born or naturalised subjects of His Majesty, are exempted persons only so long as they are temporarily residing or travelling in India, but that they cease to be exempted when they have settled in India or have no apparent intention of leaving India.

I have the honour to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,

F P Rennie
